RE: Adopt a Garden Program

At its regular monthly meeting held February 22, 2010, Amherst Town Council finalized the list of individuals approved for the "Adopt-a-Garden" program to begin in the spring of 2010.

The Adopt a Garden program was established to encourage residents to participate in assisting the Town to beautify existing gardens in the community. Participants will be responsible for the following activities in regards to their appointed garden: Garden planning, and development, general maintenance, weed control, annual planting, enhancement and landscaping.

The following individuals have been approved for the Adopt a Garden program: Deborah Churchill, Susan Dunne, Amherst Lioness Club, Brenda VanZoost, Ralph Belliveau, Sheila Graham, Liz McGregor, Amherst Y's men and Y's Menettes, YMCA Daycare, Amherst Poverty Action Committee and the Amherst Memory Club.

Council would like to thank all applicants to the Adopt a Garden Program and look forward to working with the appointed groups and individuals to beautify our Town.
